

Editorial Note

Greetings!

We welcome you all to the Volume 13, Issue 29, July-September 2026 issue of the Journal of Digital Management and Science (JDMS) published by the Center for Development Economics Studies (CDES).

We are delighted to present the 29th Issue of our Journal that reflects the journal's commitment to quality, innovation, and academic integrity. The articles in this issue address contemporary challenges across disciplines and contribute meaningful insights for researchers, educators, practitioners, and policymakers.

The articles published in JDMS have undergone a double-blind peer-review process to ensure originality, scientific quality, and ethical standards. We sincerely thank our authors for their valuable contributions and our reviewers for their time, expertise, and dedication to maintaining the quality of the journal.

We hope the articles in this issue inform, inspire, and encourage further research. On behalf of the Editorial Board, thank you to our authors, reviewers, and readers for your continued support. We look forward to your future contributions to JDMS.

Our JDMS remains committed to providing an inclusive platform for the exchange of ideas and the dissemination of impactful research.

We invite scholarly articles from interested scholars across the field, in accordance with the guidelines on our journal page of the website: <https://cdes.org.in/submit-your-paper/>
